Dear Mr. Colby:

We are delighted to hear from Fred Warner Neal that it will be possible for you to participate in our Pacem in Terris IV convocation at the Sheraton Park Hotel in Washington, December 1-4.

Mr. Neal has provided you with a general description of the program, and the specifics of the session in which you will participate. We are now putting the program in final form, and will be sending you complete details shortly.

As you know, the convocation is intended to focus public attention on the key foreign policy issues that should be on the agenda for the coming presidential campaign. We are personally grateful for your prompt and affirmative response, which does much to emphasize the critical importance we attach to this effort.

Sincerely yours,
